ARTICLE 7. FORM OF THE SHARES

The fully paid-up shares, at the option of the shareholder, are held in registered or bearer form, subject to the provisions of Article 8.2 of these by-laws.

The shares are recorded in an account under the conditions and in the manner provided for by applicable laws and regulations. ARTICLE 8. TRANSFERS OF SHARES –THRESHOLD CROSSING

8.1 Transfers of shares

The shares are freely tradable and are transferred by account to account wire.

8.2 Threshold crossing

Without prejudice to applicable law, any legal entity or individual, whether acting alone or in concert, who comes to own directly or indirectly a number of shares or voting rights equal to or greater than 0.5% of the total number of shares or voting rights of the Company, must so inform the Company. This obligation is governed by the same provisions as those governing the legal obligation; the threshold crossing declaration is to be made within the same deadline as for the legal obligation, by registered letter with return receipt requested, by facsimile or by telex, indicating whether the shares or the voting rights are held for the account of, under the control of, or in concert with other legal entities or individuals. An additional notice is required for each additional holding of 0.5% of the share capital or voting rights, without limitation.

This duty to inform applies under the same conditions when the equity holding or the voting rights cross below the thresholds mentioned in the preceding paragraph.

In the event of a failure to comply with the duty to inform provided above, the shareholder may, under the conditions and within the limits of applicable laws and regulations, be deprived of the right to vote in respect of the shares exceeding the relevant threshold. This penalty is independent of any penalty that may be decided by judicial decision upon request by the Chairperson, a shareholder, or the Autorité des marchés financiers.

For the purpose of determining the thresholds referred to above, shares or voting rights held indirectly and shares or voting rights associated with the shares or voting rights actually held, as defined by the provisions of Articles L. 233-7 et seq. of the French Commercial Code, are taken into account.

The declarant must certify that the declaration includes all of the securities giving access immediately or in the future to the share capital of the Company held or owned within the meaning of the preceding paragraph. The declarant must also indicate the date or dates of acquisition.

Mutual fund management firms are required to report this information in respect of all of the voting rights attached to the shares of the Company held by the funds that they manage.

ARTICLE 9. RIGHTS ATTACHED TO EACH SHARE

In addition to the right to vote that is attributed by law, each share gives the right to the ownership of the corporate assets, to share in the profits, and to the liquidation proceeds, in an amount equal to the portion of the share capital represented by such share.

Whenever it may be necessary to own a certain number of shares in order to exercise a right, it is the responsibility of the shareholders who do not own an adequate number of shares, as the case may be, to group their shares in the amount necessary.

The ownership of a share entails, by operation of law, adherence to the by-laws of the Company and to the decisions of the General Shareholders' Meeting and the Board of Directors, acting by delegation of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

ARTICLE 10. PAYMENT OF SHARES

The portion of the nominal amount of shares issued pursuant to a capital increase which is to be paid in cash within a legal period of five years is callable under the conditions determined by the Board of Directors.

Subscribers and shareholders are informed of capital calls at least fifteen days prior to the date established for each payment by means of a notice published in a journal of legal notices of the location of the registered office or by individual registered letter.

Any delay in the payment of the amounts due on the unpaid amount of the shares shall result, by operation of law and with no required formalities, in the payment of interest calculated at the legal rate, on a daily basis, commencing from the date such amount was payable, without prejudice to any individual action the Company may bring against the defaulting shareholder and the enforcement measures provided for by applicable laws and regulations.

ARTICLE 11. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

11.1. Composition

The Company is governed by a Board of Directors composed of at least five and at most eighteen members.

11.2. Directors

Except as may otherwise be provided by law, Directors are appointed by the Ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting.

The term of office of the Directors appointed by the ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting is three years for all nominations and re-appointments as from May 22, 2008. The term shall expire at the end of the Shareholders' Meeting approving the accounts of the prior fiscal year and held during the year in which the term of office expires.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, and to favour a seamless renewal of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors may, by exception, propose to the Annual Shareholders' Meeting to appoint Directors for a term of either one (1) year or two (2) years.

Directors may be reelected.

Directors may be removed at any time by the ordinary General Shareholders' Meeting.

Directors may be individuals or legal entities. Legal entity Directors must designate, at the time of their appointment, a permanent representative, who shall be subject to the same conditions and obligations and shall bear the same civil and criminal liabilities as if he were a Director in his own name, without prejudice to the joint liability of the legal entity that he represents. If the legal entity removes its representative, it shall give notice of such decision to the Company as soon as possible, and shall provide for the replacement thereof at the same time.

In the event of a vacancy due to the death or resignation of one or more Directors, the Board of Directors may appoint provisional Directors between two ordinary General Shareholders' Meetings.

Appointments of Directors by the Board of Directors are submitted for ratification at the next General Shareholders' Meeting.

A Director appointed to replace another shall hold office for the remaining term of his predecessor.

11.3. Directors representing employees

The Board of Directors includes one or two Directors representing employees for whom the regime is governed by the legal provisions in force and to these by-laws. When the number of members of the Board of Directors appointed by the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting is less than or equal to eight, a Director representing the employees is designated by the Company's Works Council. When the number of members of the Board of Directors appointed by the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting is greater than eight members, a second Director representing employees is designated by the Group's European Works Council. This designation is made by simple majority of incumbent members present or represented on the Works Council of the Company or the European Works Council of the Group, as applicable.

If, during a fiscal year, the number of Directors becomes less than or equal to eight, the term of office of the Director representing employees appointed by the European Works Council will continue until its expiry.

Directors representing employees shall be appointed for a three-year term.

The provisions of this Article 11.3 shall automatically cease to apply if, at the end of a fiscal year, the Company no longer meets the conditions mandating the appointment of directors representing employees pursuant to Article L. 225-27-1 of the French Commercial Code. The term of office of the Director(s) representing employees appointed in accordance with this article, shall terminate automatically, without further formality, at the end of the Board of Directors' meeting acknowledging that the legal conditions are no longer fulfilled.

11.4. Directors representing employee shareholders

The Board of Directors may include a Director representing employee shareholders nominated by the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Such representative shall be nominated by the Board of Directors from among the members of the Supervisory Board of the Company common investment fund representing employees.

The term of office such Director is determined according to Article 11.2 above. Nevertheless, this term shall automatically expire, and the employee representative Director shall be treated as having resigned from his office, upon losing his or her status as an employee of a company of the group within the meaning of Article L. 225-180 of the French Commercial Code, or upon losing of his or her status as a member of the Supervisory Board of the Company common investment fund representing employees.

11.5 Observers (censeurs)

Upon the proposal of the Chairperson, the Board of Directors may appoint one or two observers (censeurs).

Observers are convened at the same time as Directors and participate in meetings of the Board of Directors in an advisory capacity.

Observers are appointed for 18 months and are eligible for re-appointment.

They may but need not be chosen from among the shareholders.

ARTICLE 12. REMUNERATION OF DIRECTORS

The General Shareholders' Meeting may allocate to the Directors, as compensation for their activities, attendance fees in an annual fixed amount determined by the General Shareholders' Meeting.

The distribution of attendance fees amongst the Directors is determined by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors may allocate special compensation to the Directors for the duties or assignments entrusted to them.

ARTICLE 13. DELIBERATIONS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors shall meet upon convocation by its Chairperson as often as the interests of the Company may require and, in any event, with such frequency as may be provided for by applicable laws and regulations, at the registered office or at any other location indicated in the notice of meeting.

Board decisions may be taken by written consultation of its members, including by electronic means.

The decision to resort to written consultation is taken by the Chairman, who informs the Directors by any means, including verbally. Any Director may object to the use of this method for the adoption of a decision, by informing the Chairman by any means. The Chairman is bound by any objection made to him under this paragraph.

Written consultation should be limited to technical decisions that do not require discussion among the Directors, or to decisions that have already been discussed at previous meetings of the Board.

In the event of written consultation, the Chairman sends members, by e-mail, the text of the proposed decision(s), together with any documents or information required for them to reach a decision.

The quorum and majority rules applicable to decisions taken by written consultation are those applicable to decisions taken at a Board meeting. The quorum is calculated by taking into account the number of Directors who have responded to the written consultation within the deadline set by the Chairman.

Decisions taken by written consultation are recorded in minutes drawn up by the Chairman.

If the Board of Directors has not met for more than two months, one third at least of the members of the Board of Directors may ask the Chairperson to convene the Board of Directors regarding a specific agenda.

The Chief Executive Officer may also ask the Chairperson to convene the Board of Directors regarding a specific agenda.

The Chairperson of the Board is bound by the requests addressed to him in accordance with the two previous paragraphs.

In the event of the unavailability of the Chairperson, the Board of Directors may be convened by either at least one third of its members or, if the Chairperson is also a Director, by the Chief Executive Officer or a Deputy Chief Executive Officer.

The decisions of the Board of Directors may be taken by video conference or any other means of communication under the conditions and within the limitations provided for by applicable regulations. For the purposes of calculating quorums and majorities, the members participating in a meeting by video conference or other telecommunication means compliant with technical requirements of applicable regulations shall be deemed to be present.

Directors may vote by correspondence at a meeting of the Board of Directors, using a form containing the information required by current regulations, if this voting method is provided for in the notice convening the Board of Directors meeting.

Directors may be convened to meetings of the Board of Directors by any means, including orally, by the Chairperson of the Board.

The deliberations shall be taken under the quorum and majority conditions provided for by law. In the event of a tie vote the vote of the Chairperson of the session shall prevail. Any Director may give a proxy, by means of any written or electronic media, to another Director to represent him. However, during the course of a single session, each Director may only hold one proxy.

The Chief Executive Officer shall participate in the sessions of the Board of Directors. Upon the initiative of the Chairperson of the Board, the members of the management, the auditors of accounts, or other persons outside of the Company who may have particular expertise with respect to the topics on the agenda of the meeting may attend all or part of a session of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors may designate a secretary, who may but need not be chosen from among its members.

The minutes are to be recorded and the copies or excerpts of the resolutions are delivered and certified in accordance with the law.

ARTICLE 14. POWERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors determines the direction of the Company's business and oversees its implementation. In its relations with third parties, the Company is bound by the acts of the Board of Directors, even those falling outside the corporate purpose, unless it can be proven that a third party knew that the act exceeded such purpose or must have known this given the circumstances, provided, however, that the sole publication of the by-laws shall not be sufficient to establish such proof.

The Board of Directors carries out such controls and verifications as it may deem appropriate. The Chairperson or the Chief Executive Officer must communicate to each Director all documents and information necessary to carry out their respective functions.

ARTICLE 15. REPRESENTATION OF THE COMPANY

All agreements concerning the Company are signed either by the Chairperson of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or one of the Deputy Chief Executive Officers, if more than one exists, or by a Director who has been delegated authority in event of the unavailability of the Chairperson of the Board, or by any agent who has received a power for such purpose from any one of the foregoing persons or from the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 16. CHAIRPERSON AND VICE-CHAIRPERSON

The Board of Directors elects an individual to serve as Chairperson from among its members. The Board of Directors determines his compensation and establishes the term of his office, which may not exceed his term as Director.

The age limit of the Chairperson, in the event that he is not the Chief Executive Officer, is 75 years of age. He shall be deemed to have resigned at the close of the Shareholders' Meeting called to approve the financial statements for the fiscal year during which he reached 75 years of age.

The Chairperson organizes and leads the work of the Board of Directors, on which he reports to the General Shareholders' Meeting. He oversees the proper functioning of the corporate bodies and, in particular, ensures that the Directors are able to fulfill their duties.

With respect to third parties, the powers of the Chairperson of the Board are those conferred on him by law. Regarding the internal organization of the Company, these powers may be limited by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors may also appoint one or two Vice-Chairpersons as it deems appropriate.

ARTICLE 17. EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

17.1 Management

The executive management of the Company is assumed by either the Chairperson of the Board, who in such case holds the title Chairperson and Chief Executive Officer, or by another individual appointed by the Board of Directors and holding the title Chief Executive Officer.

The Board of Directors decides, under the quorum and majority conditions mandated by law, whether the executive management of the Company is assumed by its Chairperson or by a Chief Executive Officer. Such decision shall remain valid until a new decision is made by the Board of Directors.

Shareholders and third parties are informed of such decision under the conditions of applicable laws and regulations.

When the executive management of the Company is assumed by the Chairperson of the Board, the following provisions relating to the Chief Executive Officer shall apply.

The Chief Executive Officer is vested with the broadest powers to act under any circumstances on behalf of the Company. He exercises these powers within the limitations of the corporate purpose and subject to those powers expressly reserved by law to the General Shareholders' Meeting and the Board of Directors.

The Chief Executive Officer represents the Company in its relations with third parties.

The Company is bound by the acts of the Chief Executive Officer even if they exceed the corporate purpose, unless it can be proven that a third party knew that the act exceeded such purpose or must have known this given the circumstances, provided, however, that the sole publication of the by-laws shall not be sufficient to establish such proof. The provisions of the by-laws or decisions of the Board of Directors limiting the powers of the Chief Executive Officer are not enforceable against third parties.

The Board of Directors determines the compensation and the term of office of the Chief Executive Officer.

17.2 Deputy Executive Management

Upon the proposal of the Chief Executive Officer, the Board of Directors may appoint one or more individuals to assist the Chief Executive Officer, with the title of Deputy Chief Executive Officer.

The maximum number of Deputy Chief Executive Officers that may be appointed is five (5).

With the agreement of the Chief Executive Officer, the Board of Directors determines the scope and duration of the powers granted to the Deputy Chief Executive Officers.

The Board of Directors determines the compensation of the Deputy Chief Executive Officers.

With respect to third parties, the Deputy Chief Executive Officers have the same powers as the Chief Executive Officer.

In the event of a vacancy in the office of Chief Executive Officer, the functions and powers of the Deputy Chief Executive Officers shall continue until the appointment of a new Chief Executive Officer, unless the Board of Directors decides otherwise.

ARTICLE 18. STATUTORY AUDITORS

The audit of the Company shall be conducted by one or more statutory auditors who are appointed and perform their duties in accordance with the applicable law.

At the time of their appointment or, as the case may be, the renewal of their appointment, the statutory auditors must not be older than 65 years of age.

ARTICLE 19. SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS

Shareholders' Meetings are convened and deliberate pursuant to applicable laws and regulations.

Shareholders' Meetings shall be held at the Company's registered office or at such other location as may be specified in the convening notice.

Every shareholder has the right, upon proof of identity, to participate in General Shareholders' Meetings, by attending in person, by mailing in a voting form, by designating a proxy or, in accordance with the conditions described below, by electronic vote during the meeting.

Such participation, in any form whatsoever, is subject to the registration or the recording of the shares, either in the Company's registered share account, or in a bearer share account held by an authorized intermediary, within the time limits and under the conditions provided for by applicable regulations. In the case of bearer shares, the registration or the recording of the shares is confirmed by a certificate of participation delivered by the authorized intermediary.

If the Board of Directors so decides, shareholders may participate in the Meetings via videoconference or vote by any means of telecommunication or electronic transmission, including the Internet, pursuant to the conditions set forth by applicable regulations at the time of use (electronic vote during the Meeting). This decision is communicated in the convening notice published in the Bulletin des Annonces Légales Obligatoires. Shareholders who use an electronic voting form available on the Internet site set up by the General Meeting centralizing establishment, within the specified timeframe, are treated as shareholders present or represented at the Shareholders' Meeting. The typing in and signature of the forms may be directly made on this Internet site by any process determined by the Board of Directors and in compliance with the conditions set forth in the first sentence of the second paragraph of Article 1316-4 of the French Civil Code, i.e. use of a reliable process of identification ensuring the link between the signature and the voting form such as the use of an identifying code and a password.

The Shareholders' Meetings are chaired by the Chairperson of the Board or, in his absence, by the Vice-Chairperson or, in the absence of both the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson, by a Director specially authorized for such purpose by the Chairperson of the Board, failing which the Shareholders' Meeting elects a Chairperson.

In accordance with applicable laws, copies or excerpts of the minutes of the Shareholders' Meeting are validly certified by the Chairperson of the Board, by the Chief Executive Officer if he is also a Director, or by the Secretary of the Shareholders' Meeting.

ARTICLE 20. RIGHT TO VOTE

Shareholders may, under the conditions set forth by applicable laws and regulations, send their proxy and voting forms by mail for any shareholders' meeting, either in paper format or, upon a decision of the Board of Directors published in the meeting notice and the convening notice, by facsimile.

Each shareholder shall have as many votes as the shares that he possesses or represents by proxy. In accordance with paragraph 3 of article L. 225-123 of the French Commercial code, it is not granted any double voting right for shares for which it is justified of a registered form during at least two years in the name of the same shareholder.

ARTICLE 21. FISCAL YEAR

Each fiscal year commences on January 1 and ends on December 31.

ARTICLE 22. ALLOCATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF PROFITS - DISTRIBUTIONS

The income statement, which summarizes the income and expenses of the fiscal year, shows, after deduction of depreciation and reserves, the profit or loss for the fiscal year.

Legal reserves are deducted from the income of each fiscal year, reduced, as the case may be, by the prior losses. Distributable profits comprise the profits of the fiscal year reduced by prior losses and amounts used for reserves, in accordance with applicable law, and increased by retained earnings.

The General Shareholders' Meeting may, upon the proposal of the Board of Directors, deduct from such profits any amount it deems appropriate to fund any ordinary or extraordinary discretionary reserve funds, or to retain earnings.

The balance, if any, is distributed among all shares in proportion to the amount of such shares that is fully paid-up and not amortized.

The Board of Directors may decide to distribute an advance on dividends in the manner and under the conditions provided for by law.

The General Shareholders' Meeting may decide to distribute amounts paid out of distributable reserves or premiums at its disposal, indicating from which reserve or premium accounts against which these amounts are charged.

The General Shareholders' Meeting, or the Board of Directors in the case of an interim dividend, may grant each shareholder, for all or part of the dividend or interim dividends, a choice between receiving payment in the form of cash, new shares of the Company or in kind, under the conditions set forth by laws. In addition, the General Shareholders' Meeting may decide, for all or part of the dividend, interim dividends, distributions of reserves or premiums, that such distribution of dividends, reserves or premiums shall be made in kind by delivery of assets held by the Company, including financial securities.

ARTICLE 23. EXTENSION, DISSOLUTION, AND LIQUIDATION

At least one year prior to the expiration of the term of the Company, the Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting to decide whether the term of the Company should be extended.

Except in the event of judicial dissolution as provided for by law, the Company shall be dissolved upon the expiration of the term set forth in the by-laws or by decision of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

In the event of the dissolution of the Company, one or more liquidators shall be appointed by the General Shareholders' Meeting, under the quorum and majority conditions required for ordinary General Shareholders' Meetings.

The liquidator represents the Company. He is vested with the broadest powers to convert the assets to cash, including by amicable means. He is required to pay the creditors and to distribute the available balance.

The General Shareholders' Meeting may authorize the liquidator to continue business matters in progress or to undertake new matters as is necessary for the liquidation.

The sharing of the remaining net assets after redemption of the par value of the shares is distributed among the shareholders in the same proportions as their equity holdings.
